FOREWORD

This Document lays down the Anti-Money Laundering & Combating the Financing of Terrorism Policies and Procedures to be followed by personnel working in each functional area. Money Laundering now has become a Global concern and is the mother of all crimes. These guidelines have been framed to ensure effective practices are implemented to counter the problem of Money Laundering & Combating Financing Terrorism and that TSBL is not made the victim of any Financial Crime. It is company's endeavour to ensure compliance in letter and spirit to the regulations under AML Act and the requirements as per the regulators However, as part of our commitment for continual improvement, each reader and follower of this manual is encouraged to identify improvement opportunities and bring them to the attention of the appropriate authority for evaluation and subsequent incorporation in the manual.

Each reader is also urged to identify those activities that may have undergone a change since the introduction of the manual, as well as new activities that have not been included and obsolete activities that still form a part of the document but are not relevant in the current context and bring them to the immediate attention of their supervisors for appropriate modification in the policy.

Policy Compliance

Consistent compliance with this policy is essential to its effectiveness. The Company including all Staff, Management and Executives are expected to adhere to this policy. Internal Audit and Compliance Dept. will monitor and assess the compliance of all Branches and report quarterly to the Board of Directors. Non-compliance or breach of this policy may result in disciplinary action.

Policy Revision

The AML / CFT Policy & Procedures is reviewed every year or at planned intervals whenever material changes occur to reflect the regulatory requirements.

SECTION A

1. INTRODUCTION

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this document is to lay down the Anti-Money Laundering policies of Company in order to create awareness among all relevant staff members and all Department Heads about Money Laundering and the ways and means of combating the same effectively.

1.2 Scope

The scope of this document is to combat any act of money laundering and establish effective controls within the organization to ensure that the company restrain itself from being made a vehicle for Money laundering. To implement adequate due diligence on new and existing customers sound Know-Your-Customer (KYC) norms, continuous training of all relevant staff members and good reporting procedures to safeguard the organization from the dangers of Money Laundering.

1.3 Responsibility

Responsibility for approving the manual will lie with the BOD. Responsibility for ensuring implementation of the policies and procedures laid down in this manual will lie with the AML Compliance Officer. The Compliance Officer of the Company will be owner and custodian of this manual. The owner takes the ultimate responsibility for maintaining this manual to keep it updated according to changing needs of the organization and in response to changes in applicable regulations. No individualistic practices that are in conflict or are inconsistent with the contents of this manual will be allowed.

1.4 Review and Changes

Any changes in laws and regulations may also trigger a review of this policy document. The Compliance Officer of TSBL is responsible for keeping track of all regulatory pronouncements applicable to this policy. He will advise the BOD accordingly to initiate a review of the policies whenever applicable.

Any changes in the policy will be effected only upon approval by the Board of Directors. At the time of change the version number and date from which the document is effective will be changed as follows;

Version Number: The first issue of the document will bear the Version Number as 1.0. For any minor change in the document the version number will increase to 1.1, 1.2 and so on. In case of a major change in the system wherein the entire procedure needs to be re-written and re-issued, the new issue will be released with version number 2.0. Earlier versions will be marked obsolete and withdrawn from circulation

Effective Date: This is the date from which the document is effective and this is the date from which implementation and compliance to the document is expected. The document may be released earlier but with an effective date, which is later, which means that the compliance to the procedure is to start only from the date mentioned on the document.

1.5 Date of next review

TSBL will ensure that this policy document is reviewed at least once in a year so as to keep pace with the developments in the regulations and market. The next date of review will be within one year from the date of effect.

1.6 General Definition

Money laundering is the process, by which the criminals in possession of illegitimate money attempt to conceal the true origins and ownership of their wealth. Anti-money laundering (AML) efforts and Combating the Financing of Terrorism (CFT) have emerged as top priority with Governments and private business sector. More recent geopolitical events have brought the topic again into sharp focus. The rapid transformation of the financial market place and the trend towards convergence of the markets with the concurrent forces towards deregulation poses new challenges in the drive against money laundering and calls for adequate risk reduction strategies.

- (10) Company is required to apply CDD requirement to its existing customers on the basis of materiality and risk and should conduct due diligence on existing relations at appropriate times, taking into account whether and when CDD measures have previously been undertaken and the adequacy of data obtained;
- (11) Where house employees person are unable to satisfactorily complete required CDD measures, account shall not be opened or existing business relationship shall be terminated and consideration shall be given if the circumstances are suspicious so as to warrant the filing of an STR in relation to the customer.
- (12) Where Company forms a suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, and it reasonably believes that performing the CDD process will tip-off the customer, it may not pursue the CDD process, and instead should file an STR in accordance with regulation 14.
- (13) Government entities accounts shall not be opened in the personal names of the government officials and account which is to be operated by an officer of the Federal or Provincial or Local Government in his/her official capacity, shall be opened only on production of a special resolution or authority from the concerned administrative department or ministry duly endorsed by the Ministry of Finance or Finance Department/Division of the concerned Government.

Explanation:- For the purposes of this regulation the expression “Government entities” includes a legal person owned or controlled by a Provincial or Federal Government under Federal, Provincial or local law.

2.4 On-Going Due Diligence

For TSBL Customer Due Diligence (CDD) is not a one-time exercise at the time of account opening only. In order to guard against misuse of our good office against criminal transactions, we need to be vigilant at all the times, and keep monitoring transactions of our customers to ensure that the transactions executed in any particular account are within the understanding of company in terms of the customer's profile, risk category, historical pattern of the transactions and their historic funding source. For example, if a domestic individual customer orders a transaction that is significantly different from the average historical transaction size, company has to become alert and be satisfied that no suspicious reportable activity is taking place. Similarly, if a regular domestic customer, all of a sudden shows foreign sources of funds, this is likely to require further investigation by Company.

- (1) All business relations with customers shall be monitored on an ongoing basis to ensure that the transactions are consistent with the Company's knowledge of the customer, its business and risk profile and where appropriate, the sources of funds.
- (2) Background and purpose of all complex and unusual transactions, which have no apparent economic or visible lawful purpose and the background and purpose of these transactions, shall be inquired and findings shall be documented with a view of making this information available to the relevant competent authorities when required.
- (3) Company staff shall periodically review the adequacy of customer information obtained in respect of customers and beneficial owners and ensure that the information is kept up to date and relevant, by undertaking reviews of the existing records, particularly for higher risk categories of customers and the review period and procedures thereof should be defined by company, as per risk based approach.
- (4) In relation to sub-regulation (3), customers' profiles should be revised keeping in view the spirit of Know Your Customer/CDD and basis of revision shall be documented and customers may be consulted, if necessary.
- (5) Where company files an STR on reasonable grounds for suspicion that existing business relations with a customer are connected with ML/TF the company may consider it appropriate to retain the customer-
 - (a) to substantiate and document the reasons for retaining the customer; and
 - (b) the customer's business relations with the company shall be subject to proportionate risk mitigation measures, including enhanced ongoing monitoring.

- (c). TSBL shall not form business relationship with entities and/or individuals that are:
- (d). designated under the United Nations Security Council Resolutions and adopted by the Government of Pakistan;
- (e). proscribed under the Anti Terrorism Act, 1997(XXVII of 1997); and
- (f). Associates/facilitators of persons mentioned in (a) and (b).”

2.5 Enhanced Due Diligence (EDD)

- (1) The Company shall implement appropriate internal risk management systems, policies, procedures and controls to determine if any customer presents high risk of ML/TF.
- (2) For the purposes of sub-regulation (1), circumstances where a customer presents high risk of ML/TF include but are not limited to the following:-
 - (a). customers belonging to countries which are non-compliant with anti-money laundering regulations according to FATF;
 - (b). such body corporate, partnerships, associations and legal arrangements including non-governmental organizations or not-for-profit organizations which receive donations; and
 - (c). legal persons or arrangements with complex ownership structures.
- (3) The Company shall perform EDD proportionate to risk posed to the business relationship by the customers that are identified as high risk or are notified as such by the Commission.
- (4) EDD measures include but are not limited to the following:-
 - (a). obtain approval from Company senior management to establish or continue business relations with such customers;
 - (b). establish, by appropriate means, the sources of wealth and/or funds or beneficial ownership of funds, as appropriate; including company’s own assessment to this effect; and
 - (c). Conduct enhanced monitoring of business relations with the customer during the course of business relations.

2.6 Simplified Due Diligence

- (1) Where low risk is identified through adequate analysis of risk or where adequate checks and controls exist, the company may apply simplified or reduced Customer Due Diligence / Know Your Customer measures.
- (2) The decision to rate a customer as low risk shall be justified in writing by the company and low risk cases may include but are not limited to the following-
 - (a). The Company provided that they are subject to requirements to combat money laundering and terrorist financing consistent with the FATF recommendations and are supervised for compliance with those requirements;

- (b). public listed companies that are subject to regulatory disclosure requirements to ensure adequate transparency of beneficial ownership;
 - (c). financial products or services that provide appropriately defined and limited services to certain types of customers, so as to increase access for financial inclusion purposes.
- (3) Subject to sub-regulations (2), low risk for Simplified Due Diligence measures are limited to the following-
- (a). reducing the frequency of customer identification updates; reducing the degree of on-going monitoring and scrutinising transactions, based on a reasonable monetary threshold; and
 - (b). not collecting specific information or carrying out specific measures to understand the purpose and intended nature of the business relationship, but inferring the purpose and nature from the type of transaction or business relationship established:

Provided that Simplified CDD measures are not acceptable whenever there is a suspicion of money laundering or terrorist financing, or where specific higher-risk scenarios apply.

2.7 Risk Assessment

- (1) The relevant departments of company shall take appropriate steps to identify, assess and understand, its money laundering and terrorism financing risks in relation to:
- (b). its customers;
 - (c). the jurisdictions or countries its customers are from or in;
 - (d). the jurisdictions or countries the Company has operations or dealings in;
 - (e). the products, services, transactions and delivery channels of the Company.
- (2) The appropriate steps referred to in sub-regulation (1), shall include-
- (a). documenting the Company risk assessments;
 - (b). considering all the relevant risk factors before determining the level of overall risk and the appropriate type and extent of mitigation to be applied;
 - (c). keeping the risk assessments up-to-date;
 - (d) Categorizing the overall entity level risk as high, medium or low based on the result of risk assessment; and
 - (e) Having appropriate mechanisms to provide its risk assessment information to the Commission.

2.8 Risk Mitigation and Applying Risk Based Approach

The Company must implement following counter ML and TF measures, with regard to the ML and TF risks and the size of its business.

- (a). develop and implement policies, procedures and controls, which are approved by its board of directors, to enable the Company to effectively manage and mitigate the risks that are identified in the risk assessment of ML/TF or notified to it by the Commission;
- (b). monitor the implementation of those policies, procedures and controls and enhance them if necessary;
- (c). perform enhanced measures where higher risks are identified, to effectively manage and mitigate those higher risks; and
- (d). have an independent audit function to test the system.

2.9 New Products, Practices and Technologies

The Company shall:

- (a). identify and assess the money laundering and terrorism financing risks that may arise in relation to-
 - (i). the development of new products and new business practices, including new delivery mechanisms; and
 - (ii). the use of new or developing technologies for both new and pre-existing products;
- (b). Undertake the risk assessments, prior to the launch or use of such products, practices and technologies, and shall take appropriate measures to manage and mitigate the risks.
- (c). in complying with the requirements of clauses (a) and (b), pay special attention to any new products and new business practices, including new delivery mechanisms; and new or developing technologies that favour anonymity.

2.10 Beneficial Ownership of Legal Persons and Legal Arrangements

- (1) Where the customer is a legal person, in addition to other measures the Company shall acquire and use requisite information and data obtained from a reliable source, for the following purposes:
 - understand the nature of the customer's business and its ownership and control structure.
 - identify and verify the identity of the natural persons (whether acting alone or together) who owns or ultimately has controlling ownership interest in the legal person.
 - where there is doubt under clause (b) as to whether the natural persons who ultimately own or have controlling ownership interest in the legal person are the beneficial owners or where no natural persons ultimately own or exert control through ownership interest in the legal person.

- Where no natural persons are identified under clause (b) or (c), identify the natural persons having executive authority in the legal person, or in equivalent or similar positions.
- (2) Where the customer is a legal arrangement, the Company shall,
- for trusts, identify and verify the identity of the settlor, the trustee, the protector (if any), the beneficiaries (including every beneficiary that falls within a designated characteristic or class), and any natural person exercising ultimate ownership, ultimate control or ultimate effective control over the trust (including through a chain of control or ownership); and
 - for other types of legal arrangements, identify and verify the identity of persons in equivalent or similar positions, as those described under clause (a).

2.11 Reporting & Freezing of Funds AL-QAIDA/BAN ENTITIES

All customers shall be checked against the SECP letter Ref. No. SMD/SE/2(216)2010 dated September 22, 2010 and a Gazette Notification SRO No. 879(I) 2010 dated September 14, 2010 and SRO No. 880(I) 2010 dated September 15, 2010 from Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Government of Pakistan, for taking necessary action of freezing the funds of Al-Qaeda and Taliban related entities / individuals and List established and maintained by the 1267/1989/2253 Committee of United Nation regarding Taliban and Ban Entities.

2.12 Politically exposed persons (PEPs)

Business relationships with family members or close associates of PEPs involve reputation risks similar to those PEPs themselves. TSBL shall evaluate the risks to its business operations when dealing with PEPs. The following factors shall guide identification of PEPs' risk characteristics:

- Nature of the client and the client's businesses - The source of the client's wealth, the nature of the client's business and the extent to which the client's business history presents an increased risk for money-laundering and terrorist financing
- Purpose and activity – The size, purpose, services involved in the relationship
- Relationship – The nature and duration of TSBL relationship with the client
- Client's corporate structure
- Public information – Information is known or reasonably available to TSBL about the client

2.13 Business Relations with Politically Exposed Persons (PEPs)

- In relations to foreign and domestic PEPs, Company shall implement appropriate internal risk management systems, policies, procedures and controls to determine if any customer or a beneficial owner is PEP.
- In case of foreign PEPs, Company shall perform EDD in accordance with sub-regulation (4) of regulation 9, in addition to other requirements of these regulations.
- In case of domestic PEPs, where business relationship poses higher risk, Company shall carry out EDD, in accordance with sub-regulation (4) of regulation 9 in addition to other requirements of these regulations.
- The requirements are also applicable on family members and close associates of foreign and domestic PEPs.

2.14 Record Keeping

- The Company Shall maintain all necessary records on transactions, both domestic and international, including the results of any analysis undertaken (e.g. inquiries to establish the background and purpose of complex, unusual large transactions) for a minimum period of (5) five years from completion of the transaction:
- Provided that the Company may retain those records for longer period where transactions, customers or accounts involve litigation or it is required by court or other competent authority.
- The records shall be sufficient to permit reconstruction of individual transactions including the nature and date of the transaction, the type and amount of currency involved and the type and identifying number of any account involved in the transactions so as to provide, when necessary, evidence for prosecution of criminal activity and the transactions records may be maintained in paper or electronic form, provided it is admissible as evidence in a court of law.
